

The Waterfall is a Christian charity set up to help women with addictions and life-controlling issues to regain their confidence and dignity by providing them with a loving, stable environment and a training programme that promotes sustained recovery and equips them to engage positively with their families and with society.

Recovery Worker Vacancy (Maternity Cover)

Hours: 16 per week

Salary: Circa £22,000 pro rata

Location: Southampton

An exciting opportunity has arisen to be an important part of a small team aiming to make a big difference to women whose lives have been affected by addiction. The Waterfall helps women to recover from addiction to substances or behaviours, improve relationships and manage life with confidence. In February 2017 we will need to employ a committed, caring and reliable woman for 9 months maternity cover with a possibility of extending her contract, to help group members to manage the process of their recovery. This role requires a female individual with passion to see broken women restored, experience of rehabilitation and recovery work, an organised person with training or qualifications in therapeutic delivery and some experience of management. You must also be in accord with our Christian ethos and able to confidently provide or refer to Christian opportunities for nurture in response to the particular needs of group members.

To apply please email tricia@thewaterfall.org.uk or call 023 80225463 for a job description and person specification, then send us your CV with covering letter explaining clearly why you believe you are the right person for the post.

Closing date for return of applications 9th January 2016
Interviews will be held week commencing 16th January
